

Energy Management

Software

It is required to measure system parameters and data such as capacitor levels, reactive energy ratios, etc. regularly and analyze the measured data comprehensively.

ENTES offers a unprecedented monitoring and analysis with Enermedic energy management solution. Therefore, ENTES can always remotely monitor, manage, configure and keep PFC ratio under control regularly with the solutions it offers.